

Sacred Wolf Friendship Centre
Ste 137-8950 Granville St.
PO Box 2041
Port Hardy, BC VON 2P0

Phone: 250-902-0552
Cell: 250-230-3352
Facsimile: 250-949-7907
Email: edswfc@telus.net

Job Posting

SACRED WOLF FRIENDSHIP CENTRE IS CURRENTLY ACCEPTING RESUMES FOR OUR PERMANENT FULL TIME (35 HOURS/WEEK) POSITION AS FAMILY DEVELOPMENT WORKER

DUTIES included but not limited to:

1. Develop and administer programs that meet the needs of the urban aboriginal community
2. Provide individual or group supports through various methods of delivery (through workshops, talking circles, support groups, etc.)
3. Provide space and educational opportunities for the following:
 - a) increased capacity building exercises (Food Safe, First Aide, Resume Building and job interview preparation, traditional crafts workshops, etc.)
 - b) promote healthy lifestyle alternatives, promote cross-generational interactions, cultural revitalization, increase coping skills, etc.
4. Conduct Home visits as needed to meet with clientele
5. Participate as part of the team to coordinate community wide events

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Certificate or Diploma in Social Sciences or Human Social Development or a minimum of 3 years of direct experience working with aboriginal families and communities (references required).
- Knowledge of and experience working with the local First Nations
- Understanding of significance of Family support/involvement in the development of a child or children
- Have a clear understanding of the different aspects of a developing child and of Family (Kwa'kwakawa'kw Family)

Assets:

Class 5 driver's license and reliable vehicle

Any certificate/s relevant to the needs of this position.

Salary: Commensurate with Education and Experience plus Benefits.

Please return application with cover letter by 4:00 pm July 11, 2017

Anticipated start date: August 1, 2017

Submit to: Janet Hanuse edswfc@telus.net or in person @ Ste. 137-8950 Granville St.