Island Health is looking for full-time Operating Room Nurses in Campbell River

In the first week of September 2017, the doors to a NEW Campbell River Hospital will open. We are looking to hire a number of Operating Room (OR) Nurses now in preparation for the move to the new building. To learn more about the new $274.5 million, 95-bed hospital opening in Campbell River, visit the North Island Hospitals Project website.

In the OR role, you will be responsible and accountable for coordinating and administering direct client care utilizing the nursing process, provide professional nursing care to patients, provide direction to auxiliary personnel and staff, and respond to emergency situations to safeguard patients.

You will work within the framework of the College of Registered Nurses of British Columbia (CRNBC) Standards for nursing practice, and the Canadian Nurses Association (CAN) Code of Ethics for Nursing.

QUALIFICATIONS

As a graduate of a recognized nursing program, you have a current, practicing registration with College of Registered Nurses of British Columbia (CRNBC). You are a graduate of a recognized Peri-operative program or have recent operating room experience.
